TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

Scot's Gate is a portion of the fortifications of the ancient Border town of Berwick which in days past was the scene of constant fighting between English and Scottish forces. The Town Hall stands at the bottom of High Street and was erected by Joseph Dodd in 1754—61. This building also contained the Market House and Jail, but the latter has now been removed to another part of the town.
